Location:	As part of Crofty Multi Academy Trust, Garras Primary School is looking to appoint an after-school club lead to run a new after school provision from 3.15 – 5.15pm, Monday to Friday. Day to day responsibilities would include delivering a fun, play based, environment for children to enjoy after a busy day in school. Activities could range from physical activities/ sports to board games and craft. You will be required to supervise the children and ensure all children are happy and engaged in activities as well as offering snack/ drinks. Garras Primary School is known locally as a very caring and happy small school. We believe that every child is entitled to a rich, stimulating curriculum where guidance and support is evidenced by good teaching and care. At Garras School children enjoy learning and working together in a purposeful, fun-loving environment. We provide a passport to the wider world of the natural environment, arts and culture, through our many educational visits, workshops and activities, both in school and out. We take pride in being a major part of our local community including Parc Vro Care Home, Mawgan Church, Mawgan Recreation Hall and Garras Owlets Preschool. The school currently has 3 classes and 63 children on roll organised into mixed age classes.
